CSW70 ● MINISTER BRIEFING

Justice by Design: Make Rights Usable

A policy-ready model that helps governments make rights usable by aligning market access, women's income, and legal pathways

Proven in Ghana • Replicable • Measurable Outcomes

What this model enables (in policy terms)

- Women can afford filing fees, defend land/assets, and refuse coercion
- Women-owned vendors can enter markets through simplified pathways
- Payments go directly to women (bank/mobile money) with verified delivery
- Outcomes are tracked and dashboard-ready
